Cotton is in a very steep bear cycle series and is running in an uninterrupted fall from the February 2024 top. It is likely there will be a rally up M1 or M2, the latter being more likely, although in this layout, price action would occupy the space between M1 & M2. We expect M2 to be contacted around 73.00-74.00. If this rally occurs, it should reach the C lines but could travel to IC3.
